

5 Ways to Get the Most Out Of Your Conference/Meeting

Find a new attendee to sit with at lunch each day and begin a casual discussion about what you've learned so far.

Introduce yourself to at least one faculty member each day and ask them a question about his/her lecture that could apply to your practice.

Visit 5 exhibitor booths - that you've never spoken to before.

Take a picture in front of show signage every morning and post on your social media channels.

Get out of the hotel! Visit podiatrymeetings.com Travel Tips webpage and follow some of our recommendations for great places to eat and play.

